How to use it

Massage into the area — knees, neck, shoulders, back — for about 5 minutes, until absorbed. 2–3 times a day, for 3–4 days. Afterwards cover it with natural fabric, ideally cotton gauze or wool.

Worth knowing before you buy

- Not for use during pregnancy, breastfeeding or on children under 5.
- It thickens in winter at room temperature and gets runnier in summer — that's normal.
- If it gets in the eyes, rinse well with water; see a doctor if needed.
